

ENERGY REPORT MAY 2022 -
ANCHORING A POSITIVE SCENARIO AND REBUILDING LIFE ON THE EARTH

In some passages of the text I do not write directly for obvious reasons. To illustrate some phenomena better, I use the description of dual reality and the Earth calculation of time, although everything is happening non-dually in the now, anyway. I present some processes in the simplest possible way, so that they are understandable. Those who need to understand the text, will understand without any difficulties. The text is meant to be read with the Heart.

Before I move on to information about the processes that will be occurring in May, a brief summary of the events which happened in April. We are just completing the second month of planetary ascension. This interval is full of intense inflows of tides of light. Except for the processes of the final differentiation of the time lines and the beginning of the intensive transformation within the DNA strands in humans (about which I wrote in the April report), during the holiday period day after day (from the 17th to the 20th) we could experience as many as four Solar flares, including two of the strongest X-class and between them two M-class (in fact, they all merged into one very strong flare), which brought a powerful supply of light. Some beings who are sensitive may have experienced this particularly on April 20 as a state of unconditional love, connected to a feeling of overwhelming unity with all that exists, even Christ Consciousness. For some people the process of activating the fifth strand of DNA has just begun. In the next few days it may give you feelings of dizziness, possible balance fluctuations, changes in perception, etc. It is worth exercising to keep your body earthed and hydrated during this time.

Independently this light, in the following months, will have an impact on the greatest and a massive wave of awakening of the humankind. People, whose souls have previously chosen the ascending line, will still be awakening until the spring of 2024, when the awakening process will be definitively completed.

This amount of tremendous amount of light is what has caused humankind, as a collectivity, to finally anchor itself in an ascending line. It means that energy swings we felt recently, will be fading away in the upcoming months. Since May, the Space will slowly began to stabilize (although this process is going to be spread out over the whole of 2022).

In the September 2020 report, I wrote about how a critical mass of change had been reached on the Earth. At that time the process was completed in the energy space, and now we can finally observe its full manifestation in the real space. A transition of the consciousness of humanity to a higher level has taken place. It means that the energy generated by a group of people aware of their own creation is already stronger, than the chaotic energy of destructive creation, created by beings still living in fear, and not in control of their own power of creation. Therefore, a group of people aware of the power of their own creation has the full ability (and is already doing so) to create a scenario of positive actions.

The awareness of one's own creation gives not only a sense of power, but most of all freedom, peace and the feeling of empowerment. Since May - with more positive manifestations of conscious creation for the benefit of global change - this sense of power will be growing in people.

From a global level, this means that low-vibrational scenarios will lose their possibility to materialize, because at this moment, consciously created scenarios of constructive solutions are "more powerful". To sum up: enough people have become aware of how to use their power of creation effectively.

After the energy swings in the past months, the goal of which was to anchor the new timeline in matter, we are moving into the next stage of real fundamental action. And May will be the first month of a massive process (which will take further years) of rebuilding practically every aspect of people's lives on earth. From May people will really begin to take things into their own hands. This is a manifestation in the matter of the process of personal responsibility (which I have already written about in previous reports as being accomplished in the subtle space). People will finally realize that no one but themselves is responsible for what has happened until now and therefore also for what will happen in the future. And that waiting for "saviours" is just another illusion which the Matrix brings with it.

At first people will begin to group around a certain problem (what is not working) and then they will begin to demand (from the existing low-vibrational structures) changes, while implementing their own solutions (creation space). There is no longer any fear or submission in these actions. There is now an awareness of self-empowerment, and a demand for the 'representatives' to work for and not against people.

In the energies, this is similar to initially minor but effective actions on per-life issues (e.g. children's education, access to certain entitled benefits, and so on). And these actions in the second part of the year will become an avalanche, which will go through everything that is not working and will change in its own way. And the culmination of this process will occur in 2023. Such processes will require the commitment of a very large number of beings, a significant part of whom will awake just in 2022.

The change of perspective and perception of reality may be subtle, but it is a milestone in the awakening of humanity to reclaim the freedom of the human race and ultimately entering into Christ Consciousness.

Christ Consciousness is the final result of the energetic transformation within the DNA, that beings in human bodies with 12-strand DNA potential, are currently experiencing. This transformation is intended to return to the original 12-strand DNA pattern, which is the natural inheritance of the human race that they received with their original sowing on our Planet. And this template, as a result of genetic experiments has been modified and reduced to two strands of DNA (the rest of the template has been scattered, mixed up and blocked). Because of this modification, humanity has regressed in its development and life has been mainly focused on fear, surviving and materialism. For the same reason, the average modern human uses a marginal part of his or her brain, and scientists are still seeking answers to what is hidden in more than 90% of the "inactive" human DNA.

The process that is happening at the moment on a global level is intended to restore the original DNA code. This is the most powerful and spectacular 'show' that humankind has currently stepped into. This is what we have all been waiting for. The incoming waves of light are now activating the very fragments of DNA that have been scattered, joining them together to form new strands. The changes in the DNA are connected to changes in the entire nervous system and in the functioning of the brain. And all of this to make it possible to transmit significantly greater doses of light (information through the human body) and to regain the original qualities that the human body had.

With every strand of DNA a person has a connection with the following dimensions of the Universe and access to new information resources, both about himself (for example memories of previous incarnations) and about the Universe and its dimensions. The human body is a walking library, which has in it all kinds of information accumulated not only about itself, humanity as such, but also about the entire Universe (one has to remember about the fractal structure of reality and the fact that the macro scale has its reflection in the micro scale and vice versa). This great transformation is supposed to give a human being access to the full energetic and physical abilities of his/her body.

Each DNA strand is connected to a specific chakra, and through that chakra to a designated collection of energy information from space. They are organised into four groups of three strands each.

Therefore, the first DNA strand which is related to the base chakra is connected to the subconscious and the body's cellular memory. The second DNA strand is the intuitive-instinctive mind. And the third strand is associated with the logical mind and connected to the ego-will. These are attributes of the old 3D Matrix and correspond to individual consciousness.

The next three DNA strands are connected to the Soul Matrix (Superconsciousness). And so, the fourth DNA strand is associated with the heart chakra and is related to astral space, the fifth strand with the throat chakra and is connected to the archaetypal field of experience (forms, shapes and symbols). And the sixth strand is related to the third eye chakra (extrasensory perception) and the so-called angelic mind (the identity of the Soul is manifested here). Generally, these three strands of DNA represent the collective consciousness of the human race.

The next three strands (seventh, eighth and ninth) are connected to the Matrix of the Supersoul and are responsible for the causal mind. The seventh thread is connected to the crown chakra and is the link with the Source. The eighth thread is responsible for the connection to the eighth chakra (at about hand height above the head). This chakra gives you access to all dimensions and connects you to the timelessness. And the ninth thread corresponds to the ninth chakra (at about hand height above the head). All the wisdom of the Soul flows from it. These three threads are all connected to the Planetary Matrix.

Finally, the last three threads (tenth, eleventh and twelfth) are already the Solar (Galactic) Matrix. They are related to the Process of Ascension. The tenth strand corresponds to the tenth chakra located about 15 cm below the level of your feet and is related to earthing, to the energy of the elements and is connected to the consciousness of our Planet. The eleventh chakra is the one which is located completely outside the human body and which is accessible through the hands and feet. Thanks to it a field of influence is created which connects the human being to the supernatural. The mind is a powerful tool for the shaping of matter. Frequently this chakra is used by, for example, Shamans. Finally, the twelfth chakra manifests itself through all the main energetic and bodily points of the human being which are connected to the spine and the whole human aura. It allows one to experience the understanding of universal unity with everything that is. This is the Christ Consciousness. It is the chakra that allows us to realize the full purpose of the Soul in human existence.

The activation of following DNA strands also causes an increasing part of the total energy of a given being to be present in its physical body (visible, among other things, as an enlargement of the aura).

May is the month in which the activation of the feminine energies that was initiated in the previous months will finally start in humans (I mentioned this in my February 2022 report). These energies are not gender-specific, they are related to every single person. It is all about the female aspect, which is connected to intuition, reaching complete conclusions from past experiences, but also to cooperation and caring for others. But also about seeing things from a wider perspective (horizontal thinking) and understanding (empathy) in action.

What it means in practice is that less and less people will be receptive to manipulation and, by recognising the Truth, will no more feed their attention (and therefore energy) to low-vibrational scenarios. As a consequence, the low-vibrational scenarios will no longer have the energetic potential to exist in reality. (I wrote about how the creation mechanism works in detail in the December 2021 report).

And this female content in conjunction, with the realisation of how the creation mechanism works, will become the driving force for change in May and the following months. The culmination of these changes will occur in the second half of 2022 and the whole of 2023. The perspective is therefore very optimistic, although people are now facing a great deal of grassroots activities.

This fundamental work is a space in which many people, who have already discovered their potential and what they want to do (by comparison, in 2021 many people also discovered what they do not want to do), will find a space for real action in the matter. Which I would like to wish for everyone.

I will conclude with a little digression. Writing about the freedom of the human race is worth to stop for a moment, to consider a more extensive context of these events.

There are more powerful groups of interests behind the events that are taking place on Earth at the moment, and they are currently competing for supremacy on our Planet and for further control over the human race. It is important to realise that at the present time we are truly - as humanity - free, because the previous contract causing the enslavement of humanity has finished.

For this reason, it is essential that humanity once again does not let itself be manipulated into accepting new areas of influence from alien races in exchange for so-called " help " to Earth. This is especially true with the cooperation of some Pleiadians, who at this point have broken out the post-Earth arrangements and are not on the side of bringing freedom back to humanity, however they do everything to make people think otherwise.

Looking from the post-Earth perspective, one can identify - in the most straightforward terms - three groups of extra-terrestrials, who have (or had) a share in the current situation on Earth:

1. The Lirians, the "Angelic" People, some of the Arcturians, some of the inhabitants of Inner Earth, among others. This group works altruistically. Their concern is to grow harmoniously in the Universe, respecting the individuality of the races and their territories. In relation to Earth, this group aims to help restore the divine-human genetic heritage and bring full freedom back to Earth, in agreement with the original creation plan of the human species and the destiny of humans.
2. Reptilians, Draco and subordinate Grays and other hybrid races controlled by the Fallen Angels, and others. Their goal is the total domination on Earth and the destruction of all human beings who carry the divine 12-strand template in their DNA. And also to keep that part of the population (after mutation of their genotype and hybridization) which will be obedient and fully controlled through external technology.

3. Human-looking Pleiadians, Annunaki and subordinate hybrid races, among others. Their aim is the further hybridisation of humans and gaining the Earth for their own sphere of influence in exchange for, among other things, " technology gains" and "support in the processes of change".

The last two groups for many years have also been closely cooperating with the governments of the main empires on Earth. And it is exactly this collaboration (or rather struggle for influence and domination) that is also hidden behind the situation with neighbours of Poland. Once again, I would emphasise that the situation is far more deeper than it may seem.

The process of the liberation of the human species through a shift in people's awareness is not to the benefit of either of the last two groups (because the consequence is a lost of influence). Humankind is slowly beginning to realise its own inheritance and the potentials associated with it. This is a long-term process.

No one and nothing will accomplish change on Earth better than the people themselves. Realizing finally one's own Divine potential, giving full self-sufficiency, is the key to the New Earth and to the restoration/maintenance of full freedom of the human species. It is worth to remember about this. Which is something I wish for all of us in these interesting times.

I also encourage you to read the earlier series of energy reports available at <https://architekturaosobowosci.wordpress.com/>. They not only carry information, but most of all, they anchor new energies in people and allow you to maintain a higher vibrational level.
