

ENERGY REPORT December 2022 - A COMPLETE AWAKENING OF AN OWN POWER

Anna Architektura, Architektura Osobowości

Translation: Magdalena

In some passages of the text I do not write directly for obvious reasons. To illustrate some phenomena better, I use the description of dual reality and the Earth calculation of time, although everything is happening non-dually in the now, anyway. I present some processes in the simplest possible way, so that they are understandable. I focus mainly on the events of the ascending line. Those who need to understand the text, will understand without any difficulties. The text is meant to be read with the Heart.

For the beginning a synthetic – although pretty wide – summary of November.

November ended – in this yearly cycle – a three-monthly process of cleansing from a low-vibrating patterns. Both, on a collective and an individual level. Because it was the last month of this process it was the most intense.

At the same time, since the middle of November it was possible to observe a sign of a next three-monthly cycle (that will last till February 2023). It is about assessing own's assets left after cleanse and getting ready to the next cycle of activities starting Spring next year. (More about those processes I will write in the next reports).

For the purpose of sorting November processes, I write synthetically what happened (from publication of the previous report 25.10 till 26.11, when I publish the December report).

Firstly, on 25 October took place the strongest for 7 years Sun eclipse that opened a two-week – till 8.11 (when a complete Moon eclipse took place) very strong energetic transformation by a collapse of all, that does not serve (I mentioned this process in the October report as well). In fact, already on 24th October one could feel a strong tension, that on 25th October transformed into a specific energetic move.

A change by a collapse is the strongest type of a change and the least pleasant. Here, in a very short time everything that does not serve any longer is being destroyed. At the same time, during this process, one cannot see what will emerge in the future. In effect, a big gap appears in the field that is connected with a 'coercion' and quick demolition of a so far comfort zone. Many people felt strongly lost, fear, even a feeling of dying (ego level).

To better understand the character of a change I mention that there are three main types of changes. The change by a collapse – that the humanity is experiencing the most – is the strongest type of a change. These three types of changes (from the least felt) are:

- A development change – here so far solutions are improved but all elements of the structure are the same, although a layout is usually different
- An evolutionary change – whatever is new appears evolutionary on the basis of an old and runs on the basis of the known assumption concerning the future state. The chosen elements are successively replaced with new elements, it is happening slowly, with a different speed depending on the area. The whole process is constant and during a process it is sometimes hard to notice that it is happening. We can see it only after it ends up and we are in a position to compare what it was with what it has been now
- A change by a collapse – here a transition to a new state is preceded by a total destruction of what is old. A chaos arises. During the process it is unknown (for the participants) in what direction the process goes because it is an effect of an accidental decisions, actions and collective vibrations. This is a total transformation. The chaos though is not a state of a disorder or a mess. It is a state of a spontaneous transition between the old and the new.

Looking at the November process change by a collapse; its effects will depend on how conscious and deep destruction of what does not serve was. It concerns both, an individual and a collective level. And how the assets left will get used. The effects of the process will manifest in Spring 2023. In other words: the more a person is consciously connected with an inner-self and let go what does not serve, integrated what is valuable, the more effects connected with a life abundance will this person observe in the next months.

An interesting phenomenon I observed on 28 October. One could feel a strong inflow of a high vibrating energy. People with 12 DNA stands felt increased vitality and the rest of people on a constructive line might have felt somnolence, distraction, overall tiredness of a body and increased need for a rest (their bodies are not fully ready yet to pass through so high doses of energy). A destructive line experienced at the same time increased emotions (especially fear or anger) and, or a body disease (a significant worsening of a well-being and or a health state).

These inflowing energies made wide changes in a collective field of a consciousness. Now, this field looks like three separate energy fields (of different vibrations) and relating to a descending line, a middle line and an ascending line. In the next months it will shift to an access to a multidimensional seeing on the ascending line for beings with completed 12 DNA strands and in the next period – for the rest of humans on the ascending line.

The change process in the collective field of consciousness was a prelude to changes that took place on 11 November that I will describe below.

On 28 October exactly a descending line started generating more low vibrating energy that – especially for the ascending line was felt as a strong disruption in a heart chakra, a ‘heavy’ vibration.

In the period 30/31 October till 2 November possible were alive dreams. They were the effect of a multidimensional process of a collective field cleansing, as well as, an individual, from what does not serve any longer (it concerned as well previous incarnations). It also concerned very deep, hidden, humanity traumas from against destruction and relations (about those two processes I wrote in the November report).

On 2 November took place a next consciousness shift. The whole process was anchoring till 8 November (a Moon eclipse). A lot of people during this time could experience a strong tingling at the top of their heads. There also was a process of energetic balancing of human bodies. One could feel body creeps, trembling or tingling only in one (the weaker one) half of a body (especially in limbs) caused by an energetic charge of that half. In consequence it is about to bring a better synchronisation of a brain halves, more efficient matchmaking and a bigger sharpness of mind.

On 3 November a next energy inflow to human bodies could cause cold symptoms, fever and or issues with a respiratory system (this system was regenerated till 8 November), but also burning hot or aching feet, because of unblocking of a connection with the Mother Earth.

We need to remember that changes in human bodies are directly correlated with changes of the planet Earth. Both processes are happening in parallel. The more human bodies are ready to pass through high vibrations, the higher can vibrate our planet. Because it has been safe for people from an ascending line. It also deepens a disproportion between a planet vibration and a descending line, that more and more quickly disappears (and will continue disappearing) from the space.

A little word here: A lot of people would like an energetic jump right now but they do not realise that for this to manifest safely the human bodies need to be enough spacy to safely absorb such vibrations. There are beings at the moment whose bodies are enough ready however at the moment they are in minority of those that chose an ascending line. The field knows exactly what it does. The whole process can be supported by one’s own transformation and by widening of a consciousness filed. In result, a human body is ready quicker for bigger doses of flowing through energies.

On 7 November took place the first-class M Solar flare and on 8 November commenced an anchoring process in a matter of a fourth dimension (based on a heart chakra and multidimensional perception). This real will be an ultimate field for further evolution for beings on an ascending line but still with not completed 12 DNA strands. At the moment, in the fourth-dimension field 'exist' all three lines. However, for a descending line this is not a friendly environment and for an ascending line (beings with completed 12 DNA strands) this is a temporary reality towards the fifth dimension.

On 11 November in the morning (European time) the humanity for good anchored materially in the realm of the fourth dimension (a heart reality). On that day took place a second this month Solar flare class M. It opened a further development way only for those who are on a path to the Truth.

The Schumann Resonance that day for few hours was not able to show those high energies (it was visible as a black belt on a reading). People, whose bodies are not ready yet for passing through such high vibrations could feel various ailments. Especially painful could be a heart chakra plus connected with it fear vibrations. Everything that was low vibrating was getting released. On a physical level one could feel tiredness, somnolence but also vision disorders (blurred vision or even worse vision), a head (noise, dissociation) and a spine pain.

The day before, on 10 November a low vibrating site generated to the field an immense amount of noise (technologically) and a vibration of fear. It was the next trial of slowing down/blocking of a process and a need to obtain an additional, low vibrating feeding energy. Despite, a process of a material anchoring in the fourth heart dimension completed without obstacles. We have that all behind us.

The anchoring in a fourth-dimension reality (heart reality) will cause in the next month's more visible disproportions in the particular three time-lines. It reminds three parallel paths. In the nearest months one will jump strongly up, the middle will stay on the same level and the lowest will fall faster and faster down. Because now the processes happen directly in the matter it will be visible in particular in one's external appearance, health and well-being. The bodies of people from an ascending line are entering spontaneous healing, regeneration and rejuvenation. The middle line will stay on the more less same level, whilst humans from the descending line will get older faster, will get sick and untimely die.

On 12 November the third solar flare class M happened. In the next following days beautiful pink energies of Unconditional Love reached planet Earth. At first it could be felt as strong pulsing at the top of the head and the spine and next (14 November) as a pleasant warmth and a heart chakra vibration.

It is an open-heart chakra that allows to see the Truth. Thanks to that more human beings have an opportunity to confront the Truth on themselves and they start to also see the Truth in the external events. I realise that humans that only now got a chance to awake and for the first time they experienced meeting the Truth can feel fear, sadness and overall internal breakage.

On 15 November took place the fourth solar flare class M. Its purpose was a consecutive transformation of a collective heart chakra so to on 16 November anchor all those high vibrations in the matter field of the Earth (I recall that at the moment we have a materialisation of all of those processes on the Earth, however those processes already happened on a subtle level – I wrote about it in the previous reports). It could be seen in the Schumann Resonance readings.

In the next days started further clearance of low vibrating patterns. This time on the cellular level in the human bodies. People could experience strong cold (deep, internal cold), overall confusion and even subfebrile/cold symptoms. Among people with already cleared patterns I noticed an increased energy flow and a pleasant, internal warmth.

The next solar flare class M – the fifth in the month – took place on 18/19 November and finished the change through a collapse. A lot of people had at the time very vivid dreams (most often with people from the far past or with vaguely connected currently – although on a karmic level those connotations were strong). At the time various relational traumas got realised.

A further recharge of our planet Earth with high vibrations took place between 19-21 November (Schuman Resonance showed a white readings). People could feel strong tingling in a crown chakra. Some people started truly experiencing a foretaste of multidimensionality, as for example: the feeling of being at two or more places at once, a mental confusion, concentration difficulties, a change at a time perception, difficulties in a linear perception (inability to remind the thought from a moment ago), etc. among people already earlier anchored in a fourth dimension they felt a peace, happiness, a sense of harmony and an inner silence. Also an increased feeling of an inner strength.

Further days (up to 26 November) brought a gradual peace and a different perspective (I am writing here on a constructive line) of looking at the reality (with no fear, freely and with an internal readiness to build personal limits to what does not serve any longer). This attitude allows people to commence gathering their internal power and places foundations for processes that will commence in December and in the next months. This is the beginning of a three-monthly period in that massive human transformation. The Schuman Resonance also showed a completely new reading (12 hours reading with an almost black background).

That is a complete November summary. As you can see it was full of energetic events.

After a three-monthly process of cleansing, December commences a next three-monthly period connected with a gathering of internal resources. This is to get ready to real actions in a matter that will start in Spring and Summer 2023 (with the effects in the second half of 2023). As I underlined in the earlier part of this report – depending on, (1) how much the person transformed and freed from what does not serve and (2) on what consciousness level the person is, the quality and number of resources will have to administer in the next months. Generally, the more assets (energy, internal power), the more felt abundance inflowing from the environment.

The first key process that awaits us in December is a finish and a full activation of crystal bodies among people with connected earlier 12 DNA strands (at the moment it shows that it will concern 20-25% of beings with a completed in the past months 12 DNA strands). The next activations (among the second group with completed 12 strands) will take place up to Spring 2023. Then the timelines in a matter will split irrevocably.

Few words on 12 DNA strands. Many people wrongly assumes that consecutives DNA strands start as independent, parallel to those already existing. But it looks differently: next strands are built up – as a continuation – on those two already existing strands. So, it is still a double helix, however fully already scattered DNA (wrongly often called ‘junk DNA’) comes back to its own, assigned, places. The next strands connect human beings with more extensive energy-informative fields. They also give additional possibilities on particular auric bodies level (I wrote in details on each strand in the May 2022 report).

The full activation of crystal bodies among people is key in a process of a personal transformation and awaking of own’s power. It gives an access not only to further dimensions and fields but foremost to a power of a full creation in a matter. At the moment a creation in a matter is identified with a physical action in a matter. However, a real creation in a matter is something way deeper: it is a creation solely through a thought and a heart vibration manifested directly as a matter object. Moreover: only fully awaken and conscious human beings may take task that was given to them long ago here on planet Earth: to protect multidimensional portals, so called Earth’s Stargate that give access to a number of places and dimensions in the Universe. And December commences that process. To that task Humans are waking up now.

Also, for that reason humans get so big interest in the Universe and on one hand they are under special protection of high vibrating beings and are the object of numerous attacks and genetic manipulations from a low vibrating beings that would like to take control over Earth on the other hand.

Moreover – a completion of a body crystallisation process is key so the process of the Planet raise could complete. These are those beings that – though their bodies – will anchor that vibration steadily on the new Earth dimension.

Reaching to planet Earth so far energy waves had each time higher vibrations. In December (middle more less) to planet Earth will reach a next – highest so far – high vibrating energy wave, that will anchor in a matter the firth dimension vibrations. It will be connected with a throat chakra, multidimensional communication but also the beginning of a full power manifestation of beings that chose the ascending line. Technically it will be connected with an integration of variously incarnated particular Soul parts and with a full connection with a Precedent Being consciousness. That process is a true Human Being Birth to manifest its full Power. This is a meeting moment with a Clear Creation Energy. At the same time, for beings that will complete this process it will end the obligation to incarnate further in an earthly cycle. As such, a really beautiful experience is awaiting Humanity, for those that will manage – will experience it in a unique way. This is a path for beings with 12 DNA strands and completed body crystallisation that chose further evolution though an ascending process (a passage to a fifth dimension with a current physical body).

Additionally, already anchored energies with a fourth dimension, in connection with anchored in December energies of a fifth dimension will cause an increased unveiling of many hidden from humans truths (people can experience sudden internal Truth recognition through one own Heart). In an external reality more and more events will unveil so far illusions. This time it will happen on a massive scale. It will be a kind of events turn that will become a groundwork to a massive change in 2023. Besides, 2023 year will be a year of a change of all so far values on a collective level (I will write more about it at the end of 2022). That I wish all of us.

With love – Anna Architektura.

I also encourage you to read the earlier series of energy reports available at <https://architekturaosobowosci.wordpress.com/>. They not only carry information, but most of all, they anchor new energies in people and allow you to maintain a higher vibrational level.
